Trying to organise a holiday

Has anyone else managed to organise and book a holiday in Dublin? I have been searching the net and have found self-catering accommodation that is not too expensive but when it comes to finding somewhere to hire shower chair and mobile hoist I have been stumped! How come they jump out of the woodwork in Spain and Portugal but Ireland seems to be sadly lacking in facilities for disabled holiday makers. (Maybe I have just been looking in the wrong places) -Please help

Sorry, never been on holiday to Dublin. I suppose Spain is more commercial than Dublin.

Try this website, they may be able to help
